

Accessibility

We ensure that our buildings and spaces are socially inclusive and contribute to truly sustainable development of the highest quality.

Our policy of inclusive design allows access for everybody on an equal basis. It accepts that people have a wide range of needs and abilities and that designs should allow them all to use the built environment independently, safely and comfortably, and our design process regularly audits for excellence in this area.

